

Green Kitchens – Warm & On-Trend

April 15, 2023

After many years of classic white and off-white kitchens, the first shift of adventurous colors included blues, greys and greiges. With a second shift upon us, green has emerged as the latest go-to color – its warmth pairs well both with whites and wood tones and brings a more natural vibe into the space.

Cabinetry companies are offering greens in their standard color palette and many offer custom colors from the broad range of Sherwin Williams and Benjamin Moore products.

If you aren't quite feeling adventurous enough to do an entire kitchen, consider pairing natural wood cabinets on the perimeter with a green island. Or perhaps adding a green tile backsplash may do the trick!
